

Disasters can happen anywhere and anytime. It is imperative to be prepared for one when it happens. This program is aimed at training the Emergency Response Team to deal with natural and man-made disasters and to perform first aid.

Intended Audience

Hospital and pre-hospital health care workers, Medical and Paramedical professionals.

Course Description

- Types of disasters
 - Natural Disasters
 - * Fire
 - * Earthquake
 - * Flood
 - * Severe Weather
 - Man-made Disasters
 - * Suicide Attempts
 - * Hostage/ Intruders
- Causes of disasters
- How to deal with different types of disasters?
- Do's & Don't's during disasters
- Emergency planning for disasters
- Documentation

Participants will learn through

- Audio visual classroom training
- Group Activities
- Group Discussions
- Simulations
- Role plays
- Practice while watching (PWW)

Highlights

Duration:	4 Hours
Certification:	VIVO Healthcare
Validity:	1 Year